23
24 On May of 2012, I was found guilty of multiple misdemeanors of violation of no contact

1 Order. Due to that, I received a jail sentence of 9 months and few other years were
2 Suspended. On January of 2013, I left USA as a result of my conviction be in violation
3 Of INA 212 (a)(2)[8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2)] for crimes involving moral turpitude as the 4 Violations were under domestic violence.

5 Few months later after I left the country, Redmond city prosecution office brought 5
6 Different charges for Redmond City Court under causes: CR38557, CR38555, CR37945,
7 CR37944, CR37942 which requested my suspended sentence to be revoked due to me
8 Violating terms of probation by committing a law violation due to a charge brought by 9 King Country Prosecution office under cause: 12-1-05542-1 SEA (which was later
10 Dismissed).

11 Those Redmond city causes were not heard in court until circa 6 months later (after I left
12 USA with about 4-5 months) for reasons that are unknown (and in violation of 5th
13 Amendment rights for speedy trial on their own).

14 Later on the 24th of May of 2015, another charge was brought against me in King county
15 With cause: 15-1-02654-9 SEA for the crime of Felony – Cyberstalking.
16 I was not made aware of any of those charges until very recently, after that I reached
17 For the public defense office for representation and the King County Prosecution office
18 Which took over all cases, is refusing to let me attend my hearings via zoom calls and 19 Insist of me attending physically which is IMPOSSIBLE due to INA 212 (a)(2)[8 U.S.C.
20 1182(a)(2)] on which I am not eligible for a waiver under INA 212(h). Which means
21 I can't come physically into the US being not a citizen and not eligible for US entry
22 Visa.

24 This whole story has violated a plethora of my constitutional rights under 5th, 6th, 8th and

1 14th amendment as I will summarize below. Just for the sake of clarity, I am not a
2 Lawyer and I don't have access to official caselaw books. So I used a mixture of 3 AI and search engines to get the cases below. So on the top of my knowledge,
4 They are accurate.

5

6 First violation:

7 The prosecution engaged in evidence fabrication which is Per Miller v. Pate (1967) is an 8 egregious violation for my rights, due process of the law and even raise to the level of 9 prosecutorial misconduct!

10 On the causes CR38557, CR38555, CR37945, CR37944, CR37942, the original filing on 11 November 29, 2012, referred to the base to request for the revocation of suspended
12 Sentence due to new violation of law on cause number: 12-1-05542-1 SEA which was 13 Later dismissed.

14 On the current ongoing case, the prosecution used cause number: 15-1-02654-9 SEA as 15 The ground for the new law violation and by doing so, they committed two pieces of 16 Evidence fabrication:

- 17 1- They didn't share with my attorney the fact that the original hearing back in 2013 and 18 the current hearing are done based on two different cases
- 19 2- They incorrectly stated that the new violation happened in 2013 although cause
20 number: 15-1-02654-9 SEA was filed on 24 May of 2015. And they did that because 21 the new date makes the new alleged violation outside of the probation window which
22 expired circa March 2014

23

24 Second violation:

1 For the felony of cyberstalking, per discovery documents, the first
2 Occurrence of the alleged crime occurred in May of 2013, the second occurrence
3 Happened in February of 2014 and the last occurrence happened in March of 2014
4 The discovery documents didn't show any investigations of anything that would
5 Give any grounds why the charges were delayed for over 2 years from the first
6 Occurrence and over a year from the last one?

7 Per United States v. Marion (1971) and United States v. Lovasco (1977) and Doggett v.
8 United States (1992) and Dickerson v. Guste (1988), it was stated that delays between 9 The commission of a crime and the indictment (specially when the defendant was 10 Unaware of the charges) that it would be a violation of due process rights and sixth
11 Amendment rights to a speedy trial.

12

13 Third Violation:

14 The state preventing me from attending my hearings via zoom calls while knowingly
15 Knowing of my ability to be physically present in the USA is a severe violation of my 16 Due process of the law and the right of a fair trial.

17 Per United States v. Darden (1985), the court found that forcing the defendant to appear
18 In court while being too ill, was a violation of his rights of a fair trial.

19 Per Illinois v. Allen (1970), the decision allowed for a trial to continue without even the 20 Defendant being present at all due to their behavior as long as it does not prejudice their 21 Rights to a fair trial.

22 Per Maryland v. Craig (1990), the supreme court highlighted the consideration of 23 Alternatives to physical presence in court for confronting witnesses which is even 24 More sever than defendants appearing in person in court.

1 Per Faretta v. California (1975), the case touched the broader theme of the right of the 2 Defendant to participate in their trial which the King County prosecutor wants to take
3 Away from me.

4 Per United States v. Brown (2004), the court considered that forcing the defendant to 5 Appear in court while severely ill would be a violation of rights because it won't allow 6 Him to effectively participate in his defense.

7 All these cases and more show that it's very clear that preventing me from being part
8 Of my trial would be a severe violation of my rights to a fair trial and for the due process
9 Of the law!

10

11 Forth Violation: 8th Amendment:

12 Per Barker v. Wingo (1972), the court stated that in cases were a trial can't proceed, and
13 Charges hang over a defendant's head for an extended period, there might be argument
14 That the conditions and consequences of this delay could be seen as cruel and unusual
15 Punishment.

16 In my case, those charges and preventing me from getting a lot of jobs due to background
17 Checks failure which would continue to happen until the end of my life (given the fact 18 That I am unable to ever go back to USA to finalize those charges).

19 Per Stack v. Boyle (1951), although the case dealt primarily with excessive bail, the court
20 States that any pretrial conditions, including, prolonged charges without a chance for trial
21 Could violate the 8th amendment.

22

23 Per Jackson v. Indiana (1972), although the case dealt primarily with incompetent
24 Defendants who can't stand trial without the likelihood of them regaining competence.

1 It's relevant when considering defendants who are charged but cannot stand trial.

2 A. Where did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

3 The last event happened in a hearing over zoom on the 12th of August of 2024 in which
4 Redmond city judge stated that the next hearing would be the last one that I can 5 Appear via zoom and after that my physical presence is a must

8 On the 12th of August of 2024 at 2:30 PM PST

26 Based on the above, I request:

1 Either:

2 Allow me to fully attend all hearings and trial via zoom calls

5 And get me a visit visa and handle all costs for transferring me from Egypt to United
